

AMR IBRAHIM

Associate

Admitted before First Instance Court

PRACTICE DESCRIPTION

Amr is an Associate at Rizkana & Partners. Amr primarily focuses on litigation and arbitration, civil, commercial and private law. In addition, Amr deal with local courts, prosecutors and experts.

Amr attended a numerous court hearings and expert discussions on various cases in his field of practice from just normal cases to high value complex cases. Amr worked on complex liability cases, contractual liability and breach, advising companies and employees on labor matters and hardship.

Amr assisted and acted as a lawyer in institutional and ad-hoc arbitration cases related to breach in medical services, construction and sale of goods. Amr is admitted to practice before first instance courts in Egypt and has a Master of Law degree from Indiana University, Robert H. McKinney School of law in international comparative law with a thesis research in extension of arbitration clause to third parties and Bachelor of law from Cairo University.

+2 (012) 12225781

amr.ibrahim@rizkanapartners.com

Arabic & English

Cairo | Egypt